

I do not think this petition should be adopted as it does not support the proposals of WARC-2003 Article 25 because it does not eliminate the Morse Code requirement. It does nothing to improve education and enforcement, and is not specific in its proposals for opening bands to phone and digital use.